Monkfish Moon:

Monkfish Moon Romesh Gunsekera, 1996 In these stories the acclaimed author of the Reef describes his homeland of Sri Lanka a kind of paradise in which a sudden moment of silence in a city is cause for fear where civil war disrupts a marriage thousands of miles away and where the building up of home relationships and lives is more often than not swiftly and violently brought down A New York Times Notable Book of the Year Monkfish Moon Romesh Gunsekera, 2011-09-01 This vivid and haunting short story collection flows smoothly together to create a masterful portrait of contemporary Sri Lanka a country of teeming natural beauty with a society in turmoil A married couple living in London find their marriage strained by fighting in their far off homeland A man mourns his brother's death A woman regrets the lover she left behind Between exile and loss Gunsekera's characters struggle for the elusive and divided place that they call home Reprinted by Granta in a beautiful new edition

Monkfish Moon Romesh Gunsekera, 1993 Telling Stories Jacqueline Bardolph, André Viola, Jean-Pierre Durix, 2001 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lankan Diaspora Peter Reeves, 2013 Well over a million people of Sri Lankan origin live outside South Asia The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lanka Diaspora is the first comprehensive study of the lives culture beliefs and attitudes of immigrants and refugees from this island The volume is a joint publication between the Institute of South Asian Studies NUS and Editions Didier Millet It focuses on the relationship between culture and economy in the Sri Lanka diaspora in the context of globalisation increased transnational culture flows and new communication technologies In addition to the geographic mapping of the Sri Lanka diaspora in the various continents thematic chapters include topics on long distance nationalism citizenship Sinhala Tamil and Burgher diaspora identities religion and the spread of Buddhism as well as the Sri Lankan cultural impact on other nations

Terror and Reconciliation Maryse Jayasuriya, 2012-03-29 Terror and Reconciliation explores the English language literature that has emerged from Sri Lanka's quarter century long ethnic conflict It examines poetry short fiction and novels by both diasporic writers and writers resident in Sri Lanka Its discussion of resident Sri Lankan writers is particularly important because it calls attention to a rich and ambitious body of work that has largely been ignored in the Western academy and media until now. The book outlines the ways in which a wide range of resident and diasporic writers have sought to represent the conflict, mourn the violence and terror associated with the conflict and present options for reconciliation in the conflict's aftermath. The writers discussed grapple with issues of terrorism, human rights, nationalism, war, democracy, gender, ethnicity and reconciliation, making this a study of profound interest for students and scholars of South Asian literature and culture, postcolonial studies, race and ethnic studies, women's studies and peace studies.

Projections of Paradise, 2011-01-01. Paradise is commonly imagined as a place of departure or arrival, beginning and closure, permanent inhabitation of which, however much desired, is illusory. This makes it the dream of the traveller, the explorer, the migrant, hence a trope recurrent in postcolonial writing which is so centrally concerned with questions of displacement and belonging. Projections of Paradise documents this concern and demonstrates the indebtedness of writers as diverse as Salman Rushdie, Agha Shahid Ali, Cyril Dabydeen, Bernardine Evaristo, Amitav Ghosh, James Goonewardene, Romesh Gunsekera, Abdulrazak Gurnah, Janette Turner Hospital, Penelope Lively, Fatima Mernissi, Michael Ondaatje, Shyam Selvadurai, M. G. Vassanji and Rudy Wiebe to strikingly similar myths of fulfilment. In writing directly or indirectly about the experience of migration, all project paradises as places of origin or destination, as homes left or not yet found, as objects of nostalgic recollection or hopeful anticipation. Yet in locating such places quite specifically in Egypt, Zanzibar, Kashmir, Sri Lanka, the Sundarbans, Canada, the Caribbean, Queensland, Morocco, Tuscany, Russia, the Arctic, the USA and England, they also subvert received fantasies of paradise as a pleasurable land rich with natural beauty. Projections of Paradise explores what happens to these fantasies and what remains of them as postcolonial writings call them into question and expose the often hellish realities from which popular dreams of ideal elsewhere are commonly meant to provide an escape.
