Loss of the Self in Modern Literature and Art Wylie Sypher,197? Fictionality and Reality in Narrative Discourse

Li-fen Chen,2000-01-20 This dissertation is an attempt to define a Chinese modernism exemplified by the narrative practices of four major writers in Taiwan today from the perspective of comparative literature and recent development of literary theory I propose that modernity of Taiwanese fiction is not so much a result of Western influences as an evolution of Chinese narrative tradition itself To argue my point I delineate a poetics of Chinese narrative from which I devise a method of reading and a criterion of evaluation for contemporary Taiwanese fiction in defining its achievement and historical significance This study of Taiwanese fiction also aims at providing a better understanding of fundamental aesthetic assumptions of Western modernism in the context of its own literary tradition Chapter One Introduction investigates the theoretical foundation and its line of development in Western and Chinese poetics respectively It first examines the Platonic view of mimesis and Aristotelian aesthetic view of fictionality and their influence on the critical tradition the continuity of the ancient battle between philosophy and poetry as seen in the structuralist and deconstructionist theories then the relationship between subjective fictionality and ironic objectivity in Chinese poetics the continuity of the dilemma in the Chinese novelists in their dual allegiance to the ideal and the real A final section gives a critical overview of the literary scene in Taiwan The following four chapters provide examples of the internal tension between fictionality and ironic awareness in the Taiwanese modernist texts I suggest that instead of stretching the metaphorical potential of fiction to a highly intellectualized abstraction or playing down the interpretive claims of fiction by dramatizing its vulnerability like their Western counterpart the Taiwanese modernists create their texts on the borderline between the high and the low Self assertive as well as self denying each of them confronts his own intellectual vision with paradox and ambivalence In Chen Ying Chen this is expressed as a battle between a lyrical vision of ideological values and an instinctive self clowning in Chi Teng Sheng as a form of competition between pattern and contingency in Wang Chen Ho as a celebration and abuse of the fictionality of fiction and in Wang Wen Hsing an intense self parody I conclude that the sensitivity to the irrational and contradiction inherent with a resistance to didacticism constitutes the best part of the Chinese humanistic tradition which is continuously enriched with new dimensions by the contemporary Taiwanese writers

The Evolving Self in the Novels of Gail Godwin Lihong Xie,1995 As Xie leads us through these works we find Godwin's evolving heroines emerging out of lively intense sometimes painful dialogue with both the self past present and future and the social world of family birthplace culture and friendships

The Lyric Self in Zen and E.E. Cummings Michael Buland Burns,Rima Snyder,2015-04-03 The Lyric Self offers a precise and thorough examination of Zen based on classical and contemporary scholarly works as well as the author's personal experience Eight themes that are common to the practice of Zen Buddhism and the poetry of E E Cummings are compared and explored with an emphasis on their respective value to contemporary psychology and education It is the premise of The Lyric Self that both

Zen and Cummings poetry are profoundly concerned with individual awareness and that they both employ an unorthodox use of words to break through the static structures of conventional language and thought     Three Authors of Alienation M. Ian Adams,2014-12-15 As a philosophical and social concept alienation covers a broad range of mental states both normal and abnormal Correspondingly a wide range of literary forms has been employed to deal with this important theme In Three Authors of Alienation an exploration of the literary expression of alienation M Ian Adams discusses the works of three contemporary Latin American authors The fiction of Mar a Luisa Bombal Juan Carlos Onetti and Alejo Carpentier reflects alienation disgust with life and a feeling of nothingness arising from the conditions of modern society However each author treats the theme differently In La ltima niebla Mar a Luisa Bombal uses poetic imagery to create the emotional life of the protagonist Juan Carlos Onetti portrays the schizoid extreme of alienation with a complex of symbols based on changes of vision caused by the mental states of his characters In Los pasos perdidos Alejo Carpentier presents the problem of the modern alienated artist who attempts to rid himself of his social alienation by changing times and cultures In his close analysis of the works discussed Adams considers each literary element in its context and also in terms of its relation to the larger artistic vision of the author In addition he places the works of the three authors in the greater perspective of modern social problems by discussing the concepts of social alienation proposed by Erich Fromm and Erich Kahler His conclusion is that although disgust with life and feelings of meaninglessness are at the heart of the experiences of the characters of all three authors only in Alejo Carpentier s Los pasos perdidos are social conditions the major cause of alienation In the works of Bombal and Onetti alienation is a result not of social conditions but of factors unique to the characters personalities and circumstances Three Authors of Alienation is a solid contribution to criticism of contemporary Latin American narrative Adams s projection of a social problem into the realm of aesthetic experience yields intriguing interpretations of both the problem and the literature     Mad Intertextuality Monika Kaup,1993     The Poetics of Non-self Xianhao Liao,1988 fiction especially as practiced by Barth Pynchon and DeLillo Imitation is its major theme one that Gaddis pursues on many levels across several continents into mazes of arcane knowledge and bogus scholarship and even into the novel's structure through the repetition of prior texts and the interplay between literal and disguised quotation Through an endless play of repetition Gaddis confounds the reader's recognition of similarity and difference Johnston uses the theories of Bakhtin and Deleuze and others such as Julia Kristeva to map out a context for this most unusual and difficult work From Bakhtin he appropriates the concepts of carnivalesque fiction and dialogism or a plurality of independent voices no one more important than another From Deleuze he borrows the idea of the simulacrum a copy that presupposes no original and that becomes meaningful through a process of infinite repetition With these instruments Johnston analyzes the labyrinth of copy and counterfeit that Gaddis constructs in his novel

Living Issues in Philosophy Harold Hopper Titus, Marilyn S. Smith, 1974

Used by more than one million students around the world since its original publication this introductory philosophy text makes accessible a wide range of philosophical issues closely related to everyday life Emphasizing personal and immediate questions the authors approach introductory philosophy through basic human questions rather than focusing on methodology or the history of thought The text presents vital questions of contemporary interest in an overall framework of enduring concepts interweaving coverage of various topics in art history and education It covers a variety of types of philosophy in depth and both western and eastern perspectives are represented Ideal for students who have no background in philosophy Living Issues in Philosophy 9e simplifies technical language wherever possible unfamiliar terms are clearly defined upon first appearance and in the end of chapter glossaries Additional pedagogical features include exercises chapter summaries and annotated bibliographies at the end of every chapter The text also features photo biographies of major philosophers and short excerpts from philosophical classics
