Lost Utopias Harriet Ellen O'Brien, 1929    Lost Utopias Richard Pare, Jennifer Minner, 2016 The pictures in this book bring the argument about reuse and preservation into focus What is worthy of retaining and what is dispensable What are the criteria for considering whether a structure should be retained or demolished How do you define the parameters of taste and utility in making decisions to preserve or destroy How will future generations regard the destruction of certain structures will we be considered cultural vandals for not having retained more of the structures that seemed irrelevant at the time The preservation argument is heightened in the case of the exhibitions sites as by definition an exhibition is considered a temporary event Page 9    Crazy History - The Lost Utopias Bill Johns, 2025-10-29 Across five centuries humanity has chased perfection with every tool it could imagine faith reason politics and code From the celibate craftsmanship of the Shakers to the complex marriage of Oneida from the revolutionary faith of the Paris Commune to the industrial piety of the Soviet city Magnitogorsk from Jonestown's tragic certainty to Silicon Valley's digital gospel Crazy History The Lost Utopias traces one idea through every age the belief that order can redeem the world Bill Johns follows this idea from the wooden meeting halls of nineteenth century reformers to the server farms of the twenty first century revealing a single haunting rhythm beneath all their differences Every utopia begins in compassion and ends in management Every promise of paradise hardens into system and every system inherits the logic of control Written in lucid unsentimental prose this book refuses both nostalgia and cynicism It examines the Shakers divine geometry and the Perfectionists marital arithmetic it walks the boulevards of revolutionary Paris and the factory floors of the Soviet ideal city it listens to Jim Jones preaching in the Guyanese jungle and to the digital architects of Silicon Valley promising salvation through code Johns shows that the same moral language purity transparency harmony has survived every transformation of technology and belief Crazy History The Lost Utopias is not a catalog of eccentric failures It is a study of the human condition as revealed through our designs for salvation The Shakers wanted to sanctify labor The Oneidans wanted to engineer love The Soviets wanted to industrialize virtue The digital visionaries of the present want to automate goodness Each dream collapses at the same moment the instant mercy becomes inefficiency and error becomes sin From the ashes of each attempt Johns finds not condemnation but grace The ruins of these ideal communities endure as mirrors they remind us that even our disasters are born of care The Shaker chair the Oneida spoon the broken steel the cracked screen all are relics of sincerity proofs that the hunger for moral order still outlives every failed system built to contain it In its final chapters Crazy History turns toward the present exploring the digital utopias of the early twenty first century the blockchain the metaverse the dream of frictionless life and finds in them the same architectural flaw that undid the communes and the cities before them The perfection of design erases the imperfection of being human At once historical and philosophical grounded and lyrical Crazy History The Lost Utopias reads like an autopsy of paradise It asks what happens when goodness is built like an equation and what it costs a species to keep believing that the next system will finally save it AntiFascism and Memory in East Germany Josie McLellan,2004-10-07 AntiFascism and Memory in East Germany is a book about remembering and about forgetting about war and about the peace which eventually followed In the unlikely setting of the German Democratic Republic GDR the Spanish Civil War became the subject of a debate which both predated and outlasted the Cold War involving historians veterans politicains censors artists writers and Church activists Examining these multiple memories and interpretations of Spain castsnew and unexpected light on the legacy of the Spanish Civil War and the relationship between history and memory under state socialism The ruling Socialist Unity Party made full use of the antifascist legacy as legitimization for a non democratic state But despite dogged attempts at control and censorship the state was unable to silence competing voices All over East Germany International Brigade veterans preserved their version of events in letters to each other in communications with the party in discussions with friends and family around the kitchen table and in memoirs written for the desk drawer For younger EastGermans the war retained an undeniably romantic aura From their perspective Spain was a far away land to which they were forbidden to travel the stuff of camp fire singalongs and fantasies of adventure This book dissects the relationship between state sponsored history the lobbying of veterans cultural interpretations of war and the memory traces left behind by marginalised or politically oppositional groups and individuals It is a cultural history of memory under state socialism a social history of veteran groups and their relationship with the state and a political history of communist culture Above all it is the story of how post war Europeans came to terms with the heavy burden of their pre war past Lost Utopias ,19?? Strains of Utopia Caryl Flinn,1992-06-15 When Dmitri Tiomkin thanked Johannes Brahms Johann Strauss Richard Strauss and Richard Wagner upon accepting the Academy Award for his score of The High and the Mighty in 1954 he was honoring a romantic style that had characterized Hollywood's golden age of film composition from the mid 1930s to the 1950s Exploring elements of romanticism in film scores of composers ranging from Erich Korngold to Bernard Herrmann Caryl Flinn argues that films tended to link music to the sense of an idealized lost past Just as the score of Gone with the Wind captured the grandeur of the antebellum South others prompted flashbacks or suggested moments of emotional intensity and sensuality Maintaining that many films treated this utopian impulse as a female trait Flinn investigates the ways Hollywood genre films particularly film noir and melodrama sustained the connection between music and nostalgia utopia and femininity The author situates Hollywood film scores within a romantic aesthetic ideology noting compositional and theoretical affinities between the film composers and Wagner with emphasis on authorship creativity and femininity Pointing to the lasting impact of romanticism on film music Flinn draws from poststructuralist Marxist feminist and psychoanalytic criticism to offer fresh insights into the broad theme of music as an excessive utopian condition The Black Speculative Arts Movement Reynaldo Anderson,Clinton R. Fluker,2019-11-13 The Black Speculative Arts Movement Black Futurity Art Design is a 21st century statement on the intersection of the future of African people with art culture technology and politics This collection enters the global debate on the emerging field of Afrofuturism studies with an international array of scholars and artists contributing to the discussion of Black futurity in the 21st century The contributors analyze and respond to the invisibility or mischaracterization of Black people in the popular imagination in science fiction and in philosophies of history

Sustainable Urban Neighbourhood David Rudlin,Nicholas Falk,2010-05-14 This successful title previously known as Building the 21st Century Home and now in its second edition explores and explains the trends and issues that underlie the renaissance of UK towns and cities and describes the sustainable urban neighbourhood as a model for rebuilding urban areas The book reviews the way that planning policies architectural trends and economic forces have undermined the viability of urban areas in Britain since the Industrial Revolution Now that much post war planning philosophy is being discredited we are left with few urban models other than garden city inspired suburbia Are these appropriate in the 21st century given environmental concerns demographic change social and economic pressures The authors suggest that these trends point to a very different urban future The authors argue that we must reform our towns and cities so that they become attractive humane places where people will choose to live The Sustainable Urban Neighbourhood is a model for such reform and the book describes what this would look like and how it might be brought about Lost Utopias; a Brief Description of Three Quests for Happiness, Alcott's Fruitlands, Old Shaker House, and American Indian Museum, Rescued From Oblivion, Recorded and Preserved by Clara Endicott Sears on Prospect Hill in the Old Township of Harvard, ... New World Utopias Paul Kagan,1975 Here is a surprising photographic survey of communal life in the American West from 1870 to the present Many of the nearly three hundred photographs assembled here have never before been published Some were discovered by Paul Kagan among the remains of vanished communities Others taken by Kagan himself depict the present day ruins of once thriving communes The communities that these photographs and the accompanying text bring so vividly to life include the political the religious and the occult from Fountaingrove and Icaria Speranza to Pisgah Grande and the Tassajara Zen Mountain Center All of them hold valuable lessons for the world of the future As Paul Kagan writes Much of the life and much of the story is in the photographs The photographs that I made represent my feelings about the communal remains and the historical photographs show a little of the daily life of the groups The accompanying text tells the communal history and hopefully raises some pertinent questions The search for community is generally directed toward someplace over there Can the vision of the utopians be pursued here in the context of life in the world    The Open Shelf ,1929    Utopias Moritz Kaufmann,1879    Globalization and Environmental Challenges Hans Günter Brauch,Úrsula Oswald Spring,Czeslaw Mesjasz,John Grin,Pál Dunay,Navnita Chadha Behera,Béchir Chourou,Patricia Kameri-Mbote,P.
