Monarchy Community:

Monarchy and Community A. J. Black, Antony Black, 2005-11-24 A study of political ideas in the conflict between the Council of Basle 1431 1449 and Pope Eugenius IV 1431 1447 The supporters of conciliar and papal supremacy each developed a remarkable array of political doctrines which can now be seen as the immediate ancestors of later more famous theories of democracy and monarchy respectively Dr Black discusses both the development and the meaning of these doctrines and their contribution to the notion of constitutional democracy and of monarchical sovereignty respectively Both doctrines he suggests find a place in the modern state He also examines the papacy's attempt to forge an international alliance of rulers based on the monarchical view of sovereignty against the Council Extracts from writing of the two leading figures in the dispute John of Segovia and John Turrecremata are given in appendices

Spain, the Monarchy, and the Atlantic Community David C. Jordan, 1979 Community, Identity and the State Moshe Gammer, 2004-08-27 The studies in this volume originated from an international conference on Community Identity and the State held at Tel Aviv University in 2001 The first two chapters examine whether modernisation Westernisation and democratisation are identical and whether democracy is connected to a certain specific type of social structure The third examines similarities in the political economic and social development of Second World and Third World countries while the fourth discusses the relationship between criminal and normal structures in Russian society Subsequent chapters focus on nationalism using case studies from Argentina Syria and Morocco on the Ulama and national movements in the Middle East on Islamic nationalism in Iran and on the discourse between pan Africanism and Islam The final two chapters examine the effects on tribal politics of the exploitation of oil in Abu Dhabi and the problems of the Kurds in northern Iraq
