Last Light Richard Lacayo,2022-10-11 One of the nation s top art critics shows how six great artists made old age a time of triumph by producing some of the greatest work of their long careers and in some cases changing the course of art history Ordinarily we think of young artists as the bomb throwers Monet and Renoir were still in their twenties when they embarked on what would soon be called Impressionism as were Picasso and Braque when they ventured into Cubism But your sixties and the decades that follow can be no less liberating if they too bring the confidence to attempt new things Young artists may experiment because they have nothing to lose older ones because they have nothing to fear With their legacies secure they re free to reinvent themselves sometimes with revolutionary results Titian s late style offered a way for pigment itself not just the things it depicted to express feelings on the canvas foreshadowing Rubens Frans Hals 19th century Impressionists and 20th century Expressionists Goya s late work enlarged the psychological territory that artists could enter Monet s late waterlily paintings were eventually recognized as prophetic for the centerless diaphanous space developed after World War II by abstract expressionists like Jackson Pollock and Phillip Guston In his seventies Matisse began to produce some of the most joyful art of the 20th century especially his famous cutouts that brought an ancient craft into the realm of High Modernism Hopper the ultimate realist used old age on occasion to depart into the surreal And Nevelson the patron saint of late bloomers pioneered a new kind of sculpture wall sized wooden assemblages made from odds and ends she scavenged from the streets of Manhattan Though these six artists differed in many respects they shared one thing a determination to go on creating driven not by the bounding energies of youth but by the ticking clock that would inspire them to produce some of their greatest masterpieces Video Source Book ,2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction American Film and Video Festival ,1990 [Statewide Audiovisual Service ... Herrstrom,2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual s relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times. Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light, optical science, but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art, architecture and literature. Instead of its evolution, this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light being truer than any other.
