Monets Years At Giverny Beyond Impressionism:

Monet's Years at Giverny Claude Monet, 1978 This book contains 81 paintings from the 40 years Monet spent at his country home in Giverny accompanied by a narrative on Monet's life, loves, and influences. It recounts Monet's development from an Impressionist to an innovative abstractionist. Monet's Years at Giverny Polly Cone, 1979 Monet's Years at Giverny Claude Monet, Daniel Wildenstein, 1978 Monet's Years at Giverny Polly Cone, Adele Westbrook, 1984 Claude Monet (1840-1926) Claude Monet, Joseph Baillio, 2007 Scenic Impressions Estill Curtis Pennington, Martha R.

Severens, 2015-12-16 The radical changes wrought by the rise of the salon system in nineteenth century Europe provoked an interesting response from painters in the American South. Painterly trends emanating from Barbizon and Giverny emphasized the subtle textures of nature through warm color and broken brush stroke. Artists' subject matter tended to represent a prosperous middle class at play with the subtle suggestion that painting was indeed art for art's sake and not an evocation of the heroic manner. Many painters in the South took up the stylistics of Tonalism, Impressionism, and naturalism to create works of a very evocative nature. Works which celebrated the Southern scene as an exotic other, a locale offering refuge from an increasingly mechanized urban environment. Scenic Impressions offers an insight into a particular period of American art history as borne out in seminal paintings from the holdings of the Johnson Collection of Spartanburg, South Carolina. By consolidating academic information on a disparate group of objects under a common theme and important global artistic umbrella, Scenic Impressions will underscore the Johnsons' commitment to illuminating the rich cultural history of the American South and advancing scholarship in the field specifically examining some forty paintings created between 1880 and 1940 including landscapes and genre scenes. A foreword written by Kevin Sharp, director of the Dixon Gallery and Gardens in Memphis, Tennessee, introduces the topic. Two lead essays written by noted art historians Estill Curtis Pennington and Martha R. Severens discuss the history and import of the Impressionist movement abroad and domestically and specifically address the school's influence on art created in and about the American South. The featured works of art are presented in full color plates and delineated in complementary entries written by Pennington and Severens. Also included are detailed artist biographies illustrated by photographs of the artists, extensive documentation, and indices. Featured artists include Wayman Adams, Colin Campbell, Cooper, Elliott Daingerfield, G. Ruger, Donoho, Harvey Joiner, John Ross, Key, Blondelle, Malone, Lawrence Mazzanovich, Paul Plaschke, Hattie Saussy, Alice Ravenel Huger Smith, Anthony Thieme, and Helen Turner.

The Technological Republic Alexander C. Karp, Nicholas W. Zamiska, 2025-02-18 INSTANT 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER AN NPR BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A cri de coeur that takes aim at the tech industry for abandoning its history of helping America and its allies. The Wall Street Journal From the Palantir co-founder, one of Time's 100 Most Influential People of 2025 and his deputy, a critically acclaimed and sweeping indictment of the West's culture of complacency, arguing that timid leadership, intellectual fragility, and an unambitious view of technology's potential in Silicon Valley have made the U.S.

vulnerable in an era of mounting global threats Not since Allan Bloom's astonishingly successful 1987 book The Closing of the American Mind has there been a cultural critique as sweeping George F. Will's The Washington Post Provocative worthy of your time Edith Chapin former Editor in Chief of NPR Silicon Valley has lost its way Our most brilliant engineering minds once collaborated with government to advance world changing technologies Their efforts secured the West's dominant place in the geopolitical order But that relationship has now eroded with perilous repercussions Today the market rewards shallow engagement with the potential of technology Engineers and founders build photo sharing apps and marketing algorithms unwittingly becoming vessels for the ambitions of others This complacency has spread into academia politics and the boardroom The result An entire generation for whom the narrow minded pursuit of the demands of a late capitalist economy has become their calling In this groundbreaking treatise Palantir co-founder and CEO Alexander C. Karp and Nicholas W. Zamiska offer a searing critique of our collective abandonment of ambition arguing that in order for the U.S. and its allies to retain their global edge and preserve the freedoms we take for granted the software industry must renew its commitment to addressing our most urgent challenges including the new arms race of artificial intelligence The government in turn must embrace the most effective features of the engineering mindset that has propelled Silicon Valley's success Above all our leaders must reject intellectual fragility and preserve space for ideological confrontation A willingness to risk the disapproval of the crowd Karp and Zamiska contend has everything to do with technological and economic outperformance At once iconoclastic and rigorous this book also lifts the veil on Palantir and its broader political project from the inside offering a passionate call for the West to wake up to our new reality

Art, Imagination and Christian Hope Trevor A. Hart, Jeremy

Begbie, Gavin Hopps, 2012 In Christian faith the present is continuously re-shaped by ventures of hopeful and expectant living In art the poetic interplay between past present and future takes specific concrete forms furnishing vital resources for sustaining an imaginative ecology of hope This volume attends to the contributions that architecture drama literature music and painting can make as artists trace patterns of promise resisting the finality of modernity's despairing visions and generating hopeful living in a present which although marked by sin and death is grasped imaginatively as already pregnant with future

Impressionist and Post-impressionist Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Charles S. Moffett, 1985 Impressionism John I. Clancy, 2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet, C. zanne, Renoir, Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history's most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes

Monet and Modernism Gottfried Boehm, Hypo-Kulturstiftung (Múnich) Kunsthalle, 2001 This illustrated volume examines the lines of influence leading from Monet to the great modern exponents of Abstract Expressionism The book emphasizes the innovative aspects of Monet's late works including his famous waterlily paintings and Rouen Cathedral series His paintings are juxtaposed with those of 30 modern artists including Jackson Pollock Mark Rothko Barnett Newman Clyfford Still and Ellsworth Kelly The ground breaking importance of Monet's late work was long underestimated by avant garde artists of the early 20th century For them Cezanne was the father of modern art It was only in the 1950s that the Abstract Expressionists in America and Europe began to recognize and build upon Monet's achievements This fascinating volume provides fresh insight into the works of Monet and the followers of Abstract Expressionism in its various American and European manifestations
