Monets London Artists Reflections On The Thames 18591914:

Monet's London Claude Monet, John House, Petra ten-Doesschate Chu, Jennifer Hardin, 2005 Essays by Dr Jennifer Hardin and Prof John House "Marketing Art in the British Isles, 1700 to the Present" Charlotte Gould, 2017-07-05 A cultural history of the first truly modern art market Marketing Art in the British Isles 1700 to the Present furthers the burgeoning exploration of Britain's struggle to carve a niche for itself on the international art scene Bringing together scholars from the UK US Europe and Asia this collection sheds new light on such crucial notions as the internationalization of the art market the emergence of an increasingly complex exhibition culture issues of national rivalry and emulation artists individual and collective strategies for their own promotion and survival the persistent anti commercialism of an elite group of art lovers and critics and accusations of philistinism levelled at the middle classes as well as an unquestionable native British genius at reconciling jarring discourses Essays explore the unresolved tension between artistic aspirations and commercial interest a tension that has come to shape Britain's national artistic tradition from the perspectives of artists dealers and super collectors and the upwardly mobile middle classes whose consumerism gave rise to the British art market as it is known today Specific case studies include Whistler Roger Fry Damien Hirst and Charles Saatchi essays consider art markets from London and Manchester to Paris and Flanders Art Collecting and Middle Class Culture from London to Brighton, 1840-1914 David Adelman, 2024-06-28 This study explores the interplay between money status politics and art collecting in the public and private lives of members of the wealthy trading classes in Brighton during the period 1840 1914 Chapters focus on the collecting practices of five rich and upwardly mobile Victorians William Coningham 1815 84 Henry Hill 1813 82 Henry Willett 1823 1905 and Harriet Trist 1816 96 and her husband John Hamilton Trist 1812 91 The book examines the relationship between the wealth of these would be members of the Brighton bourgeoisie and the social and political meanings of their art collections paid for out of fortunes made from sugar tailoring beer and wine It explores their luxury lifestyles and civic activities including the making of Brighton museum and art gallery which reflected a paradoxical mix of patrician and liberal views of aristocratic aspiration and radical rhetoric It also highlights the centrality of the London art world to their collecting facilitated by the opening of the London to Brighton railway line in 1841 The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies and British history "Elizabeth Robins Pennell, Nineteenth-Century Pioneer of Modern Art Criticism" Kimberly Morse Jones, 2017-07-05 Mining various archives and newspaper repositories Elizabeth Robins Pennell Nineteenth Century Pioneer of Modern Art Criticism provides the first full length study of a remarkable woman and heretofore neglected art critic Pennell a prolific New Art Critic helped formulate and develop formalist methodology in Britain at the end of the nineteenth century which she applied to her mostly anonymous or pseudonymous reviews published in numerous American and British newspapers and periodicals between 1883 and 1923 A bibliography of her art criticism is included as an appendix In addition to advocating an advanced way in which to view art

Pennell used her platform to promote the work of new artists including Claude Monet and Edgar Degas which had only recently been introduced to British audiences. In particular Pennell championed the work of James McNeill Whistler for whom she along with her husband the artist Joseph Pennell wrote a biography. Examination of her contributions to the late Victorian art world also highlights the pivotal role of criticism in the production and consumption of art in general a point which is often ignored.

Radical Art and the Formation of the Avant-Garde David Cottington, 2022-01-01 An authoritative redefinition of the social cultural and visual history of the emergence of the avant garde in Paris and London. Over the past fifty years the term avant garde has come to shape discussions of European culture and modernity ubiquitously taken for granted but rarely defined. This ground breaking book develops an original and searching methodology that fundamentally reconfigures the social cultural and visual context of the emergence of the artistic avant garde in Paris and London before 1915 bringing the material history of its formation into clearer and more detailed focus than ever before. Drawing on a wealth of disciplinary evidence from socio economics to histories of sexuality bohemia consumerism politics and popular culture David Cottington explores the different models of cultural collectivity in and presumed hierarchies between these two focal cities while identifying points of ideological influence and difference between them. He reveals the avant garde to be at once complicit with resistant to and a product of the modernizing forces of professionalization challenging the conventional wisdom on this moment of cultural formation and offering the means to reset the terms of avant garde studies.

Riverscapes and National Identities Tricia

Cusack,2010-03-02 Painted riverscapes such as Claude Monet s impressions of the Seine Isaak Levitan s Volga views or Thomas Cole s Hudson scenery became iconic not least because they embodied nationalist ideas about place and about culture At a time when nationalism was taking root across Europe and the United States the riverscape played an important role in transforming the abstract idea of the nation into a potent visual image It not only offered a picture of the nation s physical character but through aspects such as style the figures portrayed and the nature of the implied spectator it presented a cultural ideal In this highly original book Tricia Cusak explores significance of painted riverscapes to the creation of national identities in nineteenth and early twentieth century Europe and America Focusing on five rivers the Hudson the Volga the Seine the Thames and the Shannon the author outlines the history of the development of national landscapes elaborating on the distinctive nature of riverscapes Drawing on the symbolic potential of rivers to represent life and time the riverscape provided a metaphor for the mythic stream of national history flowing unimpeded out of the past and into the future

Cleansing the City Michelle Elizabeth Allen,2008 Cleansing the City Sanitary Geographies in Victorian

London explores not only the challenges faced by reformers as they strove to clean up an increasingly filthy city but the resistance to their efforts Beginning in the 1830s reform minded citizens under the banner of sanitary improvement plunged into London s dark and dirty spaces and returned with the material they needed to promote public health legislation and magnificent projects of sanitary engineering Sanitary reform however was not always met with unqualified enthusiasm While some improvements such as slum clearances the development of sewerage and the embankment of the Thames may have made London a cleaner place to live these projects also destroyed and reshaped the built environment and in doing so altered the meanings and experiences of the city From the novels of Charles Dickens and George Gissing to anonymous magazine articles and pamphlets resistance to reform found expression in the nostalgic appreciation of a threatened urban landscape and anxiety about domestic autonomy in an era of networked sanitary services Cleansing the City emphasizes the disruptions and disorientation occasioned by purification a process we are generally inclined to see as positive By recovering these sometimes oppositional sometimes ambivalent responses Michelle Allen elevates a significant undercurrent of Victorian thought into the mainstream and thus provides insight into the contested nature of sanitary modernization
