Australian press frames female politicians

MEDIA TARTS JULIA BAIRD

REVISED AND UPDATED WITH A FOREWORD BY ANNABEL CRABB

Media Tarts

KJ Lindholm-Leary

Media Tarts:

Media Tarts Julia Baird, 2004 No Marketing Blurb Media Tarts Julia Baird, Julia Woodlands Baird, A powerful insight into how the media treats female politicians now revised and updated with a new foreword by Annabel Crabb from one of our foremost journalists and political commentators Julia Baird History is crucial We need to know that treating women as decorations subordinates and playthings even and sometimes especially in our houses of power is not new We know that from the moment women walked into parliament and took up space alongside men they have been treated as objects When men were featured often in the press they were rising stars When women were featured often in the press they were media tarts Julia Baird's seminal work Media Tarts was originally published in 2004 Based on a series of extensive interviews the book provides an in depth analysis of the influence of a generation of prominent female politicians on the Australian political system exploring the part played by the press in their downfall Almost two decades later it is evident how little has changed Now revisited and updated with a new foreword Media Tarts is essential reading from one of our foremost journalists and political commentators providing a powerful sobering and incisive insight into how deep the currents of misogyny run and how the media continues to treat female politicians If we want to understand what is happening today and avoid the endless repeating of the same story we need to reckon with our past Creating Space in the Fifth Estate Janet Fulton, Phillip McIntyre, 2017-05-11

Creating Space in the Fifth Estate explores what is new and valued about the digital media environment The deep and far reaching changes that are being wrought by the digital revolution are as radical in their effect as the impact of the industrial revolution was in the nineteenth century While the long term significance of these changes is uncertain the nature of the power of differing forms of media offers interesting possibilities for research as does the potential for a new mainstream space that shares characteristics with older loci of power This space is not as this book suggests merely a space for journalistic endeavors as shown by contributions here examining a diverse range of communication practices and forms including blogs journalism social media digital literary magazines disruptive twitter campaigns and online music production The book asks a number of questions What exactly is the fifth estate What are the power structures that exist there What is the relationship between the fourth and fifth estates What do we lose and what do we gain in that transition How does the fifth estate change various forms of communication How does the fifth estate constitute new communities and social movements What about traditional forms that are still finding their niche in the new world What actions do we as communicators and communication scholars now need to engage with Why is it important Creating Space in the Fifth Estate is accessible to scholars and students in a range of academic disciplines including communication and media studies sociology cultural studies and the arts It will also appeal to those who work in the media and communication industries Maori and Aboriginal Women in the Public Eye Karen Fox, 2011-12-01

From 1950 increasing numbers of Aboriginal and M ori women became nationally or internationally renowned Few reached the heights of international fame accorded Evonne Goolagong or Dame Kiri Te Kanawa and few remained household names for any length of time But their growing numbers and visibility reflected the dramatic social cultural and political changes taking place in Australia and New Zealand in the second half of the twentieth century This book is the first in depth study of media portrayals of well known Indigenous women in Australia and New Zealand including Goolagong Te Kanawa Oodgeroo Noonuccal and Dame Whina Cooper The power of the media in shaping the lives of individuals and communities for good or ill is widely acknowledged In these pages Karen Fox examines an especially fascinating and revealing aspect of the media and its history how prominent M ori and Aboriginal women were depicted for the readers of popular media in the past Publisher s description

Ending the Affair Graeme Turner,2005 Ending the Affair is a critical account of the state of current affairs television in Australia today It questions its future draws lessons from the past and shows why television current affairs matters BOOK JACKET

Paul and the Ancient Celebrity Circuit James R. Harrison,2019-11-18 In this study James R Harrison compares the modern cult of celebrity to the quest for glory in late republican and early imperial society He shows how Paul s ethic of humility based upon the crucified Christ stands out in a world obsessed with mutual comparison boasting and self sufficiency

Escape from the Ivory Tower Nancy Baron,2010-08-13 In this practical and entertaining guide to communicating science Baron explains how to engage your audience and explain why a particular finding matters She explores how to ace your interview promote a paper enter the political fray and use new media to connect with your audience The book includes advice from journalists decision makers new media experts bloggers and some of the thousands of scientists who have participated in her communication workshops Many of the researchers she has worked with have gone on to become well known spokespeople for science related issues Whether you are an absolute beginner or a seasoned veteran looking to hone your skills Escape From the Ivory Tower can help make your science understood appreciated and perhaps acted upon

Unfinished Business Anna Goldsworthy,2013-06-20 On the surface it seems the best time ever to be a woman in Australia The prime minister governor general and the richest person are all female women are at the forefront of almost every area of public life Yet when Julia Gillard s misogyny speech ricocheted around the world it clearly touched a nerve Why In the fiftieth Quarterly Essay Anna Goldsworthy examines life for women after the gains made by feminism From Facebook to 50 Shades of Grey from Girls to gonzo porn what are young women being told about work and equality about sex and their bodies Why do many reject the feminist label And why does pop culture wink at us with storylines featuring submissive women Unfinished Business is an original look at role models and available options in the age of social media and sexual frankness Goldsworthy finds that progress for women has provoked a backlash from some who wield misogyny as a weapon whether in parliament on talkback radio or as internet trolls With piercing insight and sharp humour she lays bare the dilemmas of being female today and asks how women can truly become free subjects There is a charmed zone for a girl shortly before she is ambushed by puberty At eleven or twelve she is usually taller than her male peers more articulate and more confident than she will be for years She probably spends a lot of time in front of a screen words and images flickering in her eyes Facebook Slutwalks Lady Gaga Girls Mad Men gonzo porn Twilight Fifty Shades of Grey What messages are being broadcast to her and what messages is she hearing Are they going to make her bigger or smaller Anna Goldsworthy Unfinished Business Sunburnt Country, Sweeping Pains Graham Joseph Hill,2022-02-10 Asian immigration is transforming the Australian church and society Migration from Asian countries occupies six of the ten largest groups migrating to Australia While most Australian churches are declining and aging Asian Australian churches are young and growing The end of white Australian Christianity is near The future of the church is Asian Sunburnt Country Sweeping Pains shares the stories of Asian Australian women as they experience inequality racism sexism and stereotypes in ministry and mission These women also talk about the joy and meaning they find in serving God s church and world In this book Graham Joseph Hill examines 21 987 NCLS surveys 36 detailed surveys and 15 in depth interviews with Asian Australian Christian women These women share their stories of discrimination and efforts to bring change They also offer proposals for a more equal fair and just Australian church Sunburnt Country Sweeping Pains is essential reading for all who value the voices and stories of women and want to address racism and sexism in church and society Asian Australian Christian women guide us toward a multiethnic church that values equality and dignity for women and men of all cultures Endless Forms Seirian Sumner,2022-07-12 A book that draws us in to the strange beauty of what we so often run away from Robin Ince author of The Importance of Being Interested In this eye opening and entertaining work of popular science in the spirit of The Mosquito Entangled Life and The Book of Eels a leading behavioural ecologist transforms our understanding of wasps exploring these much maligned insects secret world their incredible diversity and complex social lives and revealing how they hold our fragile ecosystem in balance Everyone worries about the collapse of bee populations But what about wasps Deemed the gangsters of the insect world wasps are winged assassins with formidable stings Conduits of Biblical punishment provokers of fear and loathing inspiration for horror movies wasps are perhaps the most maligned insect on our planet But do wasps deserve this reputation Endless Forms opens our eyes to the highly complex and diverse world of wasps Wasps are 100 million years older than bees there are ten times more wasp species than there are bees There are wasps that spend their entire lives sealed inside a fig wasps that turn cockroaches into living zombies wasps that live inside other wasps There are wasps that build citadels that put our own societies to shame marked by division of labor rebellions and policing monarchies leadership contests undertakers police negotiators and social parasites Wasps are nature s most misunderstood insect as predators and pollinators they keep the planet s ecological balance in check Wasps are nature s pest controllers a world without wasps would be just as ecologically devastating as losing the bees or beetles or butterflies Wasps are diverse and beautiful by every measure and they are invaluable to planetary health Professor Sumner reminds us we d do well to appreciate them as much as their cuter cousins the bees Australian Book Review ,2005 Brandweek ,2009 Jello Salad Nicholas Blincoe,1997 Susan Ball is
