Mediaeval Studies 1997 Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, Department of Publications, 1997 Mediaeval Studies 1997, 1998 1997 Massimo Mastrogiovanni, 2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times. The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically. The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Spheres of Philosophical Inquiry and the Historiography of Medieval Philosophy John Inglis, 1998 This volume provides a genealogy of the modern historiography of medieval philosophy up to the present rediscovered fifty years of German scholarship criticizes what has become the standard approach and proposes an historically sensitive alternative Representations of Eve in Antiquity and the English Middle Ages John Flood, 2010-12-14 As the first woman Eve was the pattern for all her daughters. The importance of readings of Eve for understanding how women were viewed at various times is a critical commonplace but one which has been only narrowly investigated. This book systematically explores the different ways in which Eve was understood by Christians in antiquity and in the English Middle Ages and it relates these understandings to female social roles. The result is an Eve more various than she is often depicted by scholars. Beginning with material from the bible the Church Fathers and Jewish sources the book goes on to look at a broad selection of medieval writing including theological works and literary texts in Old and Middle English. In addition to dealing with famous authors such as Augustine Aquinas Dante and Chaucer the writings of authors who are now less well known but who were influential in their time are explored. The book allows readers to trace the continuities and discontinuities in the way Eve was portrayed over a millennium and a half and as such it is of interest to those interested in women or the bible in the Middle Ages Annual of medieval studies at the CEU. 1996/1997 Marcell Sebők, 1998 International Medieval Bibliography, 2008 Lists articles and similar literature on medieval subjects in journals Festschriften conference proceedings and collected essays. Covers all aspects of medieval studies within the date range of 450 to 1500 for the entire continent of Europe the Middle East and North Africa for the period before the Muslim conquest and parts of those areas subsequently controlled by Christian powers Churches in Early Medieval Ireland Tomás Ó Carragáin, 2010 This is the first book devoted to churches in Ireland dating from the arrival of Christianity in the fifth century to the early stages of the Romanesque around 1100 including those built to house treasures of the golden age of Irish art such as the Book of Kells and the Ardagh chalice. Carragáin's comprehensive survey of the surviving examples forms the basis for a far-reaching analysis of why these buildings looked as they did and what they meant in the context of early Irish society. Carragáin also identifies a clear political and ideological context for the first Romanesque churches in Ireland and shows that to a considerable extent the Irish Romanesque represents the perpetuation of a long established architectural tradition Studies in the Metre of Alliterative Verse Ad Putter, Judith Anne Jefferson, Myra Stokes, 2007 For editors of alliterative verse this book is essential reading Susanna Fein Speculum lxxxv 2010 pp 457-458 A model of meticulousness and sensible argument Thomas Bredehoft Review of English Studies lx 2009 pp 802-804 The volume provides a comprehensive study of the metre of the unrhymed poems of the Alliterative Revival It includes detailed analysis and discussion of line endings alliterative patterning historical grammar the relationship between linguistic stress and beat and presents new discoveries regarding the metrical rules of the a verse Readers interested in the metre and textual criticism of alliterative poems such as Sir Gawain and the Green Knight The Siege of Jerusalem and the Alexander fragments will find this monograph an outstanding scholarly assured and important work Ruth Kennedy Royal Holloway University of London
