Medieval 20 Practical Inspirations:

Inspiration and Authority in the Middle Ages Brian FitzGerald, 2017-10-06 Inspiration and Authority in the Middle Ages rethinks the role of prophecy in the Middle Ages by examining how professional theologians responded to new assertions of divine inspiration Drawing on fresh archival research and detailed study of unpublished manuscript sources from the twelfth to fourteenth centuries this volume argues that the task of defining prophetic authority became a crucial intellectual and cultural enterprise as university trained theologians confronted prophetic claims from lay mystics radical Franciscans and other unprecedented visionaries In the process these theologians redescribed their own activities as prophetic by locating inspiration not in special predictions or ecstatic visions but in natural forms of understanding and in the daily work of ecclesiastical teaching and ministry Instead of containing the spread of prophetic privilege however scholastic assessments of prophecy from Peter Lombard and Thomas Aquinas to Peter John Olivi and Nicholas Trevet opened space for claims of divine insight to proliferate beyond the control of theologians By the turn of the fourteenth century secular Italian humanists could lay claim to prophetic authority on the basis of their intellectual powers and literary practices From Hugh of St Victor to Albertino Mussato reflections on and debates over prophecy reveal medieval clerics scholars and reformers reshaping the contours of religious authority the boundaries of sanctity and sacred texts and the relationship of tradition to the new voices of the Late Middle Ages The Italian Renaissance Imagery of Inspiration Maria Ruvoldt, 2004-03-29

Stergar, 2021-07-06 Edward C Moore 1827 1891 was the creative leader who brought Tiffany Co to unparalleled originality and success during the late nineteenth century A silversmith designer and prodigious collector Moore sought out exceptional objects from around the world which he then used as inspiration for Tiffany's innovative silver designs. This informative richly illustrated volume, the first study of Moore's life, collection and influence, presents more than 170 examples from his vast collection ranging from Greek and Roman glass to Spanish vases, Islamic metalwork and Japanese textiles. These are juxtaposed with sixty magnificent silver objects created by the designers and artisans at Tiffany who were inspired by Moore's acquisitions. Included among them are the world famous Bryant Vase drawing upon Greek examples, a love cup featuring ornate Saracenic decoration and a chocolate pot incorporating novel techniques influenced by Japanese ceramics and lacquerware. The illuminating texts have been enriched by groundbreaking research into contemporary sources such as newspapers and periodicals, the Tiffany Co Archives and a newly identified technical manual and supervisor's diaries, all of which provide an intimate look at the firm's design processes and Moore's role in shaping them. A valuable contribution to the history of American decorative arts, Collecting Inspiration illuminates both the legendary Tiffany aesthetic and the legacy of a significant collector, designer and entrepreneur of the Gilded Age.

As an essential part of human life, worlds, landscapes have the potential to absorb something of people's lives, works and thoughts. But landscapes also shape their own life histories at different timescales, transcending human life cycles and generating their own temporalities and rhythms. It comes as no surprise therefore that the co-scripting of landscapes and people figures prominently in the auto-biographical works of writers and attracts the interest of geographers, archaeologists, historians and anthropologists. This has even resulted in a new genre in landscape research, rapidly gaining in popularity under the heading of landscape biography. In Landscape Biographies, twenty geographers, archaeologists, historians and anthropologists investigate the diverse ways in which landscapes and monuments have been constructed, transmitted and transformed from prehistory up to the present, from Manhattan to Shanghai, from Iceland to Portugal and from England to Estonia. Among the authors are distinguished scholars like G. Sli P. Isson, Cornelius Holtorf, Joshua Pollard and Mark Gillings.
