Medieval Liturgical Texts In Italian Manuscripts:

Medieval Liturgical Texts in Italian Manuscripts Brian Møller Jensen,2006 Presents a collection of fifteen studies on liturgical texts in medieval Italian manuscripts including the English versions of five published in Italian Hagiography is the central theme in these studies Studies on Medieval Liturgical and Legal Manuscripts from Spain and Southern Italy Roger E. Reynolds,2023-05-31 Though it may not be immediately obvious why articles on topics from such distantly removed areas of western Europe the Iberian peninsula and southern Italy should appear in the same volume the fourth collection by Roger Reynolds the materials covered illustrate that they are indeed closely related both in their differences and their similarities Both peninsulas had their own indigenous liturgies and music Old Spanish and Beneventan distinctive written scripts Visigothic and Beneventan and legal and theological traditions and repeatedly these worked their influence on other areas of western Europe Although there were frequent attempts by the papacy and secular rulers from the 9th to the 13th century to suppress these distinctive traditions in both areas elements of these nonetheless survived well into the 16th century and beyond Despite the differences in these traditions the articles in this volume also demonstrate through manuscript evidence the continued exchange of the distinctive customs between the Iberian peninsula and southern Italian cultures from the very early Middle Ages through the 12th century Law and Liturgy in the Latin Church, 5th-12th Centuries Roger E. Reynolds,2024-10-28 The two themes brought together in this volume the canon law and the liturgy of the early medieval Latin Church have close links as these articles reveal At the basis of this lies that fact that the collections and manuscripts with which Professor Reynolds is concerned provide the source material for both fields of study In the book particular emphasis is given to the Irish Collection canonum hibernensis and its many derivatives to works from Carolingian Salzburg and eleventh century Southern Italy and to liturgical collections The whole illustrates the need for liturgiologists to be aware of the riches in medieval legal sources and for legal historians to take account of the wealth of liturgical material that is a principal ingredient of the law of the Church and demonstrates how much one field can contribute to understanding the development and to the dating of the other Les deux th mes r unis dans ce volume le droit canon et la liturgie de l Eglise Latine du haut moyan ge ont comme le r v le ce groupe d articles des liens tr s troits Ceci reposant sur le fait que les collections et manuscrits auxquels le professeur Reynolds s int resse apportent la substance se trouvant la source de ces deux terrains d tudes Dans le livre une importance particuli re est donn e au Collectio canonum hibernensis irlandais et ses multiples d rivations ainsi qu aux travaux issus de Salzburg l poque carolingienne ceux provenant d Italie m ridionale au 11 s et aux collections liturgiques L ensemble illustre la n sessit pour les sp cialistes en liturgie d tre conscients de l abondance de sources l gales m di vales et pour les historiens du droit de tenir compte de la richesse en mati re liturgique et que forme l un des ingr dients principaux du droit de l Eglise il d montre aussi combien un domaine peut contribuer la compr hension du d veloppement et l assignation de date Liturgy and the Arts in the Middle Ages Eva Louise Lillie,Nils Holger Petersen,1996

This volume contains a collection of essays in honour of the late Professor of Comparative Literature C Clifford Flanigan who died suddenly in 1993 at the age of 52 The scholarship of this book constitutes an example of the interdisciplinary approach to the study of ecclesiastical history which is the aim of the newly established Centre for Christianity and the Arts at the Theological Faculty at the University of Copenhagen Canon Law in the Age of Reforms (c. 1000 to C. 1150) Christof Rolker,2023-09-29 This monograph addresses the history of canon law in Western Europe between ca 1000 and ca 1150 specifically the collections compiled and the councils held in that time The main part consists of an analysis of all major collections taking into account their formal and material sources the social and political context of their origin the manuscript transmission and their reception more generally As most collections are not available in reliable editions a considerable part of the discussion involves the analysis of medieval manuscripts Specialized research is available for many but not all these works but tends to be scattered across miscellaneous publications in English German French Italian and Spanish one purpose of the book is thus to provide relatively uniform up to date accounts of all major collections of the period At the same time the book argues that the collections are much more directly influenced by the social milieux from which they emerged and that more groups were involved in the development of high medieval canon law than it has previously been thought In particular the book seeks to replace the still widely held belief that the development of canon law in the century before Gratian s Decretum ca 1140 was largely driven by the Reform papacy Instead it is crucial to take into account the contribution of bishops monks and other groups with often conflicting interests Put briefly local needs and conflicts played a considerably more important role than central papal reform on which older scholarship has largely focused Music, Rhetoric and Christian Hebraism in Early Modern Europe Hyun-Ah Kim,2025-10-01 This book presents the first in depth exploration of the relationship between music rhetoric and Christian Hebraism by re appraising the significance of the first German humanist Johannes Reuchlin s study of Kabbalah and cantillation in the light of Renaissance rhetoric Few studies have investigated how Renaissance humanists learned Hebrew language for the delivery pronuntiatio of the Hebrew Bible as an aural oral tradition Hyun Ah Kim examines the way in which grammarian philosopher Reuchlin reconstructed the modulata recitatio of the Hebrew Bible and its underlying intellectual foundation Consequently Kim demonstrates the hitherto neglected Hebraic aspect of Renaissance rhetoric and its mystical implications that played a vital role in shaping a new theoretical framework for the art of accented singing an art which has changed European musical culture ever since Music Rhetoric and Christian Hebraism in Early Modern Europe elucidates why this nexus is essential for understanding the integral relationship between music language and theological philosophy Bishops, Texts and the Use of Canon Law around 1100 Bruce C. Brasington,2017-05-15 The essays in this volume in honour of Martin Brett address issues relating to the compilation and transmission of canon law collections the role of bishops in their dissemination as well as the interpretation and use of law in the eleventh and twelfth centuries The studies are grouped thematically under the headings

Bishops and Their Texts and Texts and the Use of Canon Law These reflect important areas of contention in the historiographical literature and hence will further the debates regarding not simply the compilation and dissemination of canonical collections in the earlier middle ages but also the development of the practical application of canon law within Europe especially after c 1080 Individually the contributors offer new viewpoints on key issues and questions relating to the creation of canonical texts their transmission and use on both sides of the English Channel in the decades either side of the year 1100 Collectively the essays explore the methods and motives of compilers assess the use of law find readers both in the compilation of texts and within their margins and perhaps most importantly speculate where possible about the living communities in which these texts were compiled copied and used American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Classica Et Mediaevalia ,2005 List of members of the society in v 1 Tropes and Sequences in the Liturgy of the Church in Piacenza in the Twelfth Century Brian Møller Jensen,2002 The Western Manuscripts of the Bodleian Library Herbert Henry Edmund Craster,1921 International Bibliography of Historical Sciences: Band 75: 2006 Massimo Mastrogregori,2010 Die International Bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS die seit 1930 j hrlich erscheint verzeichnet die bedeutendsten Neuerscheinungen geschichtswissenschaftlicher Monographien und Zeitschriftenartikel weltweit von der Vor und Fr hgeschichte bis zur j ngsten Vergangenheit einschlie lich der historischen Hilfswissenschaften Die Werke sind innerhalb der systematischen Gliederung nach Zeitalter Region oder historischer Disziplin alphabetisch aufgelistet Es folgen ein Autoren und ein Personenverzeichnis sowie ein geographisches Register A Companion to the History of the Book Simon Eliot,Jonathan Rose,2009-03-30 A COMPANION TO THE HISTORY OF THE BOOK A COMPANION TO THE HISTORY OF THE BOOK Edited by Simon Eliot and Jonathan Rose As a stimulating overview of the multidimensional present state of the field the Companion has no peer Choice If you want to understand how cultures come into being endure and change then you need to come to terms with the rich and often surprising history Of the book Eliot and Rose have done a fine job Their volume can be heartily recommended Adrian Johns Technology and Culture From the early Sumerian clay tablet through to the emergence of the electronic text this Companion provides a continuous and coherent account of the history of the book A team of expert contributors draws on the latest research in order to offer a cogent transcontinental narrative Many of them use illustrative examples and case studies of well known texts conveying the excitement surrounding this rapidly developing field The Companion is organized around four distinct approaches to the history of the book First it introduces the variety of methods used by book historians and allied specialists from the long established discipline of bibliography to newer IT based approaches Next it provides a broad chronological survey of the forms and content of texts The third section situates the book in the context of text culture as a whole while the final section addresses broader issues such as literacy copyright and the future of the book Contributors to this volume Michael Albin Martin Andrews Rob Banham Megan L Benton Michelle P Brown Marie Frangoise Cachin Hortensia Calvo Charles Chadwyck Healey M T Clanchy Stephen Colclough Patricia Crain J S
