Absent the object, art historians must stretch their methods to or even past the breaking point. This concise volume addresses the problems inherent in studying medieval works of art: artifacts and monuments that have disappeared, have been destroyed, or perhaps never existed in the first place. The contributors to this volume are confronted with the full expanse of what they cannot see, handle or know. Connecting object histories, the anthropology of images and historiography, they seek to understand how people have made sense of the past by examining objects, images and architectural and urban spaces. Intersecting these approaches is a deep current of reflection upon the theorization of historical analysis and the ways in which the past is inscribed into layers of evidence that are only ever revealed in the historian's present tense. Highly original and theoretically sophisticated, this volume will stimulate debate among art historians about the critical practices used to confront the formative presence of destruction, loss, obscurity and existential uncertainty within the history of art and the study of historical material and visual cultures. In addition to the editors, the contributors to this volume are Michele Bacci, Claudia Brittenham, Sonja Drimmer, Ja Elsner, Peter Geimer, Danielle B Joyner, Kristopher W Kersey, Lena Liepe, Meekyung MacMurdie and Michelle McCoy. Knights in Miniature II Andrea Press, Mig Jimenez, 2005-01-01 This publication is a complete guide to painting and converting medieval miniatures. It includes step by step processes explaining the different techniques such as applying transfers, painting with acrylics using an airbrush and many techniques for building dioramas. The book is illustrated throughout with many photographs making it both attractive and extremely useful for the serious modeler. REVIEWS: pictures are first rate and the supporting text is well laid out. Ground works tactics defined here are applicable to just about any type of diorama base so the benefits go beyond just figure modeling. These two volumes come highly recommended for any modeler. IPMS 30741 12 2007 Catalogue Dawson's Book Shop, 1929 Medieval Miniatures Alfred Werner, 1951 Flemish Miniatures from the 8th to the Mid-16th Century Maurits Smeyers, 1999 A beautiful overview of the development in style of the miniature. From the anonymous and modest early Romanesque illustrations to the luxurious late Gothic miniatures of Simon Marmion or Lucas Horenbout, who in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries exported their Flemish masterpieces as far afield as Spain and Russia. Never before has the reader/viewer been presented with such a complete overview of the art of Flemish miniatures from the eighth to the sixteenth centuries. Never before has a book presented such a fascinating history of eight centuries of the art of miniatures from the Low Countries.
