Media Worlds:

Digital Media Worlds Giuditta De Prato, Jean Paul Simon, 2014-05-13 Digital Media Worlds tracks the evolution of the media sector on its way toward a digital world. It focuses on core economic and management issues: cost structures, value network, chain business models in industries such as book publishing, broadcasting, film, music, newspaper, and video game.

Media Worlds in the Postjournalism Era David Altheide, 2019-01-08 The concept of media logic, a theoretical framework for explaining the relationship between mass media and culture, was first introduced in Altheide and Snow's influential work Media Logic. In Media Worlds in the Postjournalism Era, the authors expand their analysis of how organizational considerations promote a distinctive media logic which in turn is conducive to a media culture. They trace the ethnography of that media culture, including the knowledge, techniques, and assumptions that encourage media professionals to acquire particular cognitive and evaluative criteria and thereby present events primarily for the media's own ends. Media Worlds Faye D. Ginsburg, Lila Abu-Lughod, Brian Larkin, 2002-10-23 This landmark collection maps and motivates the anthropological voice in media studies by locating the media in worlds of practice, sentiment, debate, and dissent. Using such vivid examples as the image management of the Dalai Lama and the social organization of Nigerian cinema theatres, the authors remind us that media machineries are not more magical than the social worlds they inhabit and project. Music and Media in the Arab World Michael Frishkopf, 2010-09-01 Since the turn of the twentieth century, the dramatic rise of mass media has profoundly transformed music practices in the Arab world. Music has adapted to successive forms of media dissemination, from phonograph cylinders to MP3, each subjected to the political and economic forces of its particular era and region. Carried by mass media, the broader culture of Arab music has been thoroughly transformed as well. Simultaneously, mass-mediated music has become a powerful social force. While parallel processes have unfolded worldwide, their implications in the Arabic-speaking world have thus far received little scholarly attention. This provocative volume features sixteen new essays examining these issues, especially televised music and the controversial new genre of the music video. Perceptive voices, both emerging and established, represent a wide variety of academic disciplines. Incisive essays by Egyptian critics display the textures of public Arabic discourse to an English readership. Authors address the key issues of contemporary Arab society: gender and sexuality, Islam, class, economy, power, and nation, as refracted through the culture of mediated music. Interconnected by a web of recurrent concepts, this collection transcends music to become an important resource for the study of contemporary Arab society and culture. Contributors: Wael Abdel Fattah, Yasser Abdel Latif, Moataz Abdel Aziz, Tamim Al Barghouti, Mounir Al Wassimi, Walter Armbrust, Elisabeth Cestor, Hani Darwish, Walid El Khachab, Abdel Wahab Elmessiri, James Grippo, Patricia Kubala, Katherine Meizel, Zein Nassar, Ibrahim Saleh, Laith Ulaby. Media Records, 1929 Digital Media Worlds Giuditta De Prato, Jean Paul Simon, 2014-05-13 Digital Media Worlds tracks the evolution of the media sector on its way toward a digital world.
