

LA COMPETENCIA DIGITAL EN LA ENSEÑANZA MEDIADA POR TECNOLOGÍA UNA PRIMERA REFLEXIÓN POSPANDEMIA

María Julia Morales

Resumen

Este artículo presenta un mapeo de las políticas educativas de inclusión de tecnologías de la información y la comunicación (TIC), de los marcos de competencias digitales y la pertinencia de conocer su alcance en un contexto de pandemia y pospandemia. Se revisa cómo los modelos 1 a 1 de inclusión digital han irrumpido en los sistemas educativos y cómo estos incorporan las TIC desde una perspectiva que toma en cuenta al estudiante y al desarrollo de su competencia digital, para ahondar luego en el desarrollo de la competencia digital docente. Se reflexiona acerca de las herramientas de la educación en Uruguay para afrontar una acelerada transición hacia una enseñanza remota de emergencia como única respuesta educativa en un contexto de pandemia y cómo podría pensarse pospandemia y para quiénes.

Palabras clave: TIC, educación, competencia digital docente.

Abstract

Digital competence in technology-mediated learning. A first post-pandemic reflection

This article provides a mapping of ICT inclusion education policies and digital competency frameworks and the relevance of understanding their scope in a pandemic and post-pandemic context. Firstly, we review how the 1-to-1 models of digital inclusion have burst into education systems and how they reflect a view of the incorporation of ICT from a perspective that takes into account the student and the development of digital competence (DC) in them, to then delve into the development of digital competence of teachers (TDC) as a relevant actor in teaching and learning processes mediated by digital technologies. Finally, it reflects on research results in relation to the tools that education in Uruguay has had to face an accelerated transition towards an emergency remote teaching, as the only educational response in a context of uncertainty in pandemic and how it could be thought post-pandemic and for whom in a continuum from face-to-face mediated by digital technologies to full virtuality.

Keywords: ICT, education, digital teaching competence.

Mediated Transcendence Jerry H. Gill, 1989 Gill contends that the seeming loss of transcendence in favor of naturalism or overcome by thinking of intangible reality as it mediates and is mediated by tangible reality He draws on well seasoned theories of reality knowledge ethics and language Cloth edition 26 50 unseen Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Comparative Theories of Nonduality Milton Scarborough, 2009-02-21 It is a commonplace that while Asia is nondualistic the West because of its uncritical reliance on Greek derived intellectual standards is dualistic Dualism is a deep seated habit of thinking and acting in all spheres of life through the prism of binary opposites leads to paralyzing practical and theoretical difficulties Asia can provide no assistance for the foreseeable future because the West finds Asian nondualism especially that of Mahayana Buddhism too alien and nihilistic On the other hand postmodern thought which purports to deliver us from the dualisms embedded in modernity turns out to be merely a pseudo postmodernism This book's novel idea is that the West already contains within one of its more marginalized roots that of ancient Hebrew culture a pre philosophical form of nondualism which makes possible a new form of nondualism one to which the West can subscribe This new nondualism inspired by Buddhism but not identical to it is an epistemological ontological metaphysical and praxical middle way both for the West and also between East and West PHILOSOPHICAL EXPLORATION THROUGH THE MIND,

Justification as the Speech of the Spirit Jeffrey K. Anderson,2021-08-10 In the past few decades there have been an increasing number of authors and movements that reject the classic Protestant understanding of justification e g the New Perspective on Paul Auburn Avenue Theology the Renewal Movement etc While the various proposals differ in many respects they are generally united in their rejection of justification as a legal declaration made by the Father about the believer based on the work of the Son In particular among renewal Pentecostal Charismatic authors there have been several attempts to redefine justification insisting that it is an umbrella term incorporating numerous redemptive ideas rather than a declaration of the believer s righteousness These attempts are in part rooted in the absence of any overt pneumatology in the doctrine s typical formulation One need only read the above sentences to see that there is no mention of the Holy Spirit This book addresses these and other concerns especially by renewal authors and demonstrate that the doctrine is in fact pneumatologically informed albeit latently rather than blatantly As a result there is no need to redefine the theology of the Reformers and their successors Creation, Catastrophe & Calvary John Templeton Baldwin,2000 In this scientific age what difference does it make whether I believe the world was created in six literal days and that the world was destroyed by a global flood In answering these questions Creation Catastrophe and Calvary shows how these beliefs are related to key issues such as the forgiveness of our sins and Sabbath observance Foreword Introduction Meet the Authors An Angel s Worldview The Days of Creation in Genesis 1 A Second Creation Account Biblical Evidence for the Universality of the Genesis Flood The Grand Canyon and the Genesis Flood The Geologic Column and Calvary The Rainbow Connection Implications for an Evangelical Understanding of the Atonement Evolution A Theory in Crisis The Role of Creation in Seventh day Adventist Theology Science and Theology Focusing the Complementary Lights of Jesus Scripture and Nature Transcendence and the Modern Novel D. Jesus Christ in History and Scripture Edgar V. McKnight, 1999 Jesus Christ in History and Scripture highlights two related bases for the current revolution in Jesus studies 1 a critically chastened world view that is satisfied with provisional results and 2 a creative or poetic use of the sources of study of Jesus The first part of the book shows that precritical critical and postcritical epochs and attitudes all alive today support different sorts of knowledge concerning Jesus historical reconstructions historic memory and appropriations imaginative poetic and artistic creations and theological formulations and that the Gospels themselves support different sorts of knowledge and approaches The Gospels were composed by Christians who combined historical information and historic memory in imaginative ways to present a Jesus who was relevant to their congregations as he was to the earliest disciples The creative contribution that readers of the Gospels make in their reconstructions of Jesus is a recapitulation of the creative activities of the earliest evangelists The central section of the book provides a philosophical rationale for correlating the historical critical methods of biblical scholars and the rationalist methods of theologians and for correlating these modern Enlightenment modes of knowledge with feeling lived experience and praxis It also traces the attempts to do justice to the historical Jesus with particular attention to the different philosophical and theological presuppositions supporting the different attempts A final section discusses the values of non foundationist hermeneutical approaches for the broader questions of the use and authority of the Bible In the end ecumenical rather than divisive approaches are advocated Different ways of doing church and different ways of discovering and creating truth demand an ecumenical approach
