The Story of Us Humans, from Atoms to Today's Civilization Robert Dalling, 2006-03 The Story of Us Humans explains human nature and human history including the origins of our species emotions behavior morals and society It explains what we are how we got here and where we are today by describing the origin history and current ways of our neighborhoods religion government science technology and business Written in plain language it explains what astronomy physics geology biology chemistry anthropology history religion social science and political science tell us about ourselves Most everyone feels that human success is measured in terms of healthy and happy children and communities Human thoughts and actions involve little besides love and children spouse and family community and justice because we are parenting mammals and social primates Each of us simply wants to laugh and joke with our family and friends pursue life raise children and strive to be a valued and contributing member of our community We have made incredible progress building civilization in just a few hundred generations using nothing except our animal minds Have you wondered What are the laws of nature and how many laws are there How did molecular life begin and then evolve into worms fish amphibians reptiles mammals primates and humans What are the differences between these animals How did we get from the Big Bang to bacteria and on to Christianity democracy and globalization What is life like for gatherer hunters When did we first become farmers and first build cities and what was life like at those times What was life like in Ancient Mesopotamia Ancient Athens 13th century Cahokia Medieval China and Europe 19th Century New England Yoruban villages and in the U S during the 1920s What was the Industrial Revolution and how has it changed our lives What are the Hindu Muslim Confucian Jewish Christian Buddhist and Humanist religions and world views How have our wages infant mortality rates lifespans crime rates and poverty and inequality rates varied through the ages What are the biggest economic and social secrets in the U S today What are some meaningful goals and priorities for our civilization and how can we measure the success of our attempts to reach those goals Includes questions index bibliography and 1 200 internet links taking you to images videos and discussed documents

The Past And Future Of Law E.O. Blunsom, 2013-04-10 We live in our nations but what other nations do may affect us and sometimes immensely We are all members of the world community of people living in our dangerous world The purpose of the following book is to consider the laws and practices that govern our nations and through them our world It builds on the premise that unless we change and improve our laws the human race may not survive in the future It is not about any particular nation but about all nations Many citizens believe their nations are ideal providing freedom and justice and with governments representative of the people This may be true in their minds and according to their beliefs but the dangers and sufferings of the world continue They are the concern of us all because they affect all people The world has changed vastly from the past It is technically more advanced but also more dangerous because of nuclear and other deadly weapons and widespread poverty and diseases in overgrown populations The past in spite of its myriad wars and premature deaths has survived Can our present world using the same instruments power nations positive laws strictly enforced retaliations and harsh punishments also survive The answer may be an unequivocal no reverberating through future power wars We need a fresh outlook different laws and a new phase of global society to replace the past Legal philosophers have proclaimed many varieties of laws including eternal laws provided by God and natural laws according to human nature Most are nonenforced laws that they say Ought to be Positive laws are those that exist made and enforced by nations This Is My Body Michal Andrzej Kobialka,2009-12-22 Realigns representational practices in the early Middle Ages with current debates on representation

This Is My Body Michal Kobialka,1999-07-20 Realigns representational practices in the early Middle Ages with current debates on representation Encyclopedia of Women in the Middle Ages Jennifer Lawler,2018-01-16 Most people have heard of Lady Godiva and her horseback tax protest in the 11th century and Joan of Arc who in the 15th century fought against the English for the French gaining sainthood in 1920 Many know of Eleanor of Aquitaine 12th century Queen of France and England and powerful manipulator and protector of kings Some know of Hildegard and Beatrice and Blanche and Clare There are many famous women of the Middle Ages whose lives and leadership brought important changes to history This encyclopedia contains several hundred entries on the culture history and circumstances of women in the Middle Ages from the years 500 to 1500 C E The geographical scope of this work is wide with entries on women from England France Germany Japan and other nations around the world There are entries on queens empresses and other women in positions of leadership as well as entries on topics such as work marriage and family households employment religion and various other aspects of women s lives in the Middle Ages Genealogies of queens and empresses accompany the text in an appendix Women and Islam Ibtissam Bouachrine,2014-05-21 Muslim women of all ages economic status educational backgrounds sexual orientations and from different parts of historically Muslim countries suffer the kinds of atrocities that violate common understandings of human rights and are normally denounced as criminal or pathological yet these actions are sustained because they uphold some religious doctrine or some custom blessed by local traditions Ironically while instances of abuse meted out to women and even female children are routine scholarship about Muslim women in the post 9 11 era has rarely focused attention on them preferring to speak of women s agency and resistance Too few scholars are willing to tell the complicated and at times harrowing stories of Muslim women s lives Women and Islam Myths Apologies and the Limits of Feminist Critique radically rethinks the celebratory discourse constructed around Muslim women s resistance It shows instead the limits of such resistance and the restricted agency given women within Islamic societies The book does not center on a single historical period Rather it is organized as a response to five questions that have been central to upholding the resistance discourse What is the impact of the myth of al Andalus on a feminist critique What is the feminist utility of Edward Said s theory of Orientalism Is Islam compatible with a feminist agenda To what extent can Islamic institutions such as the veil be liberating for women Will the current Arab uprisings yield significant change for Muslim women Through examination of these core questions Bouachrine calls for a shift in the paradigm of discourse about feminism in the Muslim world Cover images provided by Tachfine Bouachrine The Journal of Medieval and Renaissance Studies, 1982 Five Euphemias Elizabeth Sutherland, 1999 Through the lives of these five women all related all called Euphemia and one of them Queen of the Scots Elizabeth Sutherland covers 200 years of Scottish history This book casts new light on the Scots fierce fight for freedom Program of the Annual Meeting American Historical Association, 1982 Some programs include also the programs of societies meeting concurrently with the association The Medieval Experience, 300-1400 Jill N. Claster, 1982 This general survey of medieval European economy society and culture is intended as a first guide to the subject for college students In writing The Medieval Experience Jill Claster has been particularly concerned to demonstrate the vitality and diversity that the world of the Middle Ages achieved despite the fact that the physical aspects of life were exceedingly difficult This very usable and accessible textbook is enhanced by illustrations and source quotations which help convey a sense of the period's historical texture The range of topics explored is extensive Economic factors such as progress in agriculture and the growth of commerce are thoroughly examined as are the political and social histories of feudal Europe Claster looks particularly closely at monasticism the cultural influence of religion and the revival of learning She probes the problems faced by Jews in a predominantly Christian society and contemplates as well the problems faced by women
